PATRIARCHS MILITANT INSTITUTED IN TONOPAH

Tonopah encampment, Patriarchs Militant, No. 16, was organized Saturday afternoon and evening at Odd Fellows' hall when the degree of advanced Oddfellowship was conferred on the following charter members: A. Rogers, Earl S. Norris, Sampson Finley, J. A. Scurluck, G. F. Laws, Jas. Currie, John Dundson, Dave J. Sektley, Murdoch C. Smith, Mark D. Newell, Lewis S. Ross, Andrew Milovich, William G. Norris, T. M. Pierce, J. A. Peterson, Lewis D. Norris, Charles F. Geyer, L. D. Warner, James Kakovich, Earnest Cole, Charles Ciderblade, Gonfrio M. Spalch, Joseph Bernatto, Joseph Rinder, E. H. Langley, Paul Magri, David W. Richards, Samuel Richards, L. H. Abernathy, John Ghiochio, Magni Carlson.

The degree work was in charge of George R. Emory, grand patriarch of Reno, assisted by E. C. Mulcahy, chief patriarch of Reno Encampment No. 5 and Earl S. Norris and M. Carlson of Belmont Lodge No. 24, past chief patriarchs.

The induction ceremonies occupied the lodge until a late hour when the members and their guests sat down to a banquet served in the banquet hall. Earl S. Norris, presided and in response to toasts, brief remarks were made by the visitors, with happy greetings from W. A. Rogers, Mark D. Newell and E. H. Langley of the local lodge.

THIS BEATS THE BEACH RESORTS WITH BATHING ON THE DESERT

Nothing like it. It was a grand sight that would have stirred the heart of the most miserly creature found on God's grey footstool. There were hundreds of boys, girls, men and women sporting themselves in the sparkling waters of the new natatorium adjoining the Victor park. And, what a time they had. The spectacle was one that would reward the most generous contributor to the kiddies' swimming pool fund for the pleasure was so spontaneous that it could be seen at a glance that the pool furnished the one long felt want of the little ones who are cooped up here in the solitude where water is a precious commodity.

Why, it was like a section of the most popular beach resorts transferred from the Pacific coast to this little old dried up town where the children grow up in the belief that water was made only to allay the thirst. There the boys and girls shouted and splashed water on one another and chased and played games waist deep in the tepid reservoir. Nothing like it has ever been seen in Nevada. Other cities may have their swimming pools but they are aristocratic affairs where only those who have the price can afford to take a dip but this is as free as the sunlight from the unflecked heavens of the desert and the enjoyment is correspondingly great.

CHEAPENING COST OF WAR INSURANCE

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The department of commerce will propose to amend the insurance bill authorizing government to pay the difference between peace time premiums and war rates on soldiers' and sailors' insured by private companies, and to action.

This amendment would make possible for private insurance companies to insure at peace time premiums without incurring the war hazard. The government would bear the difference between peace and war rates only on individuals killed where the man met no casualty the peace premium would prevail.

ARTHUR KEENAN ENTERTAINS

Arthur Keenan entertained a party of gentlemen friends Saturday evening at his residence with the following guests: Emil Elkner, Arthur Brooke, Walter Drysdale, Bartlett Cooper of the Sanborn Mfg. GOING TO WEST FRONT

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Several congressmen probably will visit Europe and the western battle front after adjournment next month.

After a costly war, cheap peace is impossible.—Albany Journal.

The officers in instituting the encampment were: G. R. Emory, G. P.; M. Carlson, H. P.; E. C. Mulcahy, S. W.; E. S. Norris, G. S.; J. A. Scurluck, treasurer; E. H. Langley, secretary.

After the organization of the encampment, 30 members of Tonopah and Goldfield lodges of Odd Fellows were presented for initiation and to receive all the degrees. The third degree work was started at 7:30 o'clock and the work was continued until all of the secret work was done.

After the banquet was over all the members of the new encampment returned to the hall and proceeded with the nomination and election of the new encampment.

J. A. Scurluck, chief patriarch; E. H. Langley, high priest; John Dundson, senior warden; W. A. Rogers, junior warden; L. H. Abernathy, scribe; Mr. Cole, treasurer; A. Milovich, Lewis D. Norris and Mark D. Newell, trustees.

The members of the new encampment No. 16 of Tonopah cannot speak any too highly of Brother George Emory, grand patriarch of the state of Nevada, and E. C. Mulcahy, chief patriarch of No. 5 encampment of Reno. They are masters in their work and the way that they done the work was highly appreciated by all the brothers of the new encampment.

DOUBLE BILL AT THE BUTLER

A Great Big Double Bill—a Seven Reel program—will be the attraction at the Butler this evening, and everyone who enjoys a couple of hours of high-class amusements is urged to be on hand.

The five-reel feature will consist of Vitagraph Blue Ribbon production entitled "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," featuring the famous English stars, Sir George Alexander and Hilda Moore, and the entire original cast.

A convent girl, torn with jealousy, spurs stepmother and drives woman to suicide. The healing effects of prayer on the soul of a young girl torn by her first passions of love and hate, are beautifully portrayed in the closing scenes of this production.

The other feature is Roscoe (Pat) Arbuckle, in his second two-reel production, "His Wedding Night." Everyone will remember the bit hit he made in his former production "The Butcher Boy," and as these comedies are only produced once a month, you should not miss the opportunity of seeing this one. Some say they like him better than Charlie Chaplin, and that is saying a great deal.

It's a good show. Do not miss it. Tomorrow, the famous Japanese star in a Lasky production, and Pathe News.
